Notice

This receipt may be required at check in and must be presented to customs and immigration if requested. Carriage and other services provided by the carrier are subject to condition of carriage which are hereby incorporated by reference. These conditions may be obtained from the issuing carrier. If the passenger's journey involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of the departure the Warsaw convention may be applicable and the convention governs and in most cases limits the liability of carriers for death or personal injury and in respect of loss of or damage to baggage.

You have provided us your personal information in order to facilitate your current and future travel arrangements and allow us to provide travel services and products to you. We will remove your information from our records upon your request if you call, write, or email any of us individually or email us centrally at privacyfeedback@maritimetravel.ca.

If you are denied boarding or your baggage is lost or damaged, you may be entitled to certain standards of treatment and compensation under the Air Passenger Protection Regulations. For more information about your passenger rights please contact your air carrier or visit the Canadian Transportation Agency's website. <https://rppa-appr.ca/eng>

As per the terms and conditions of our suppliers. They reserve the right to increase their prices. If the price increases more than 7%, except increases resulting from an increase in retail sales tax or federal goods and services tax, you as a customer have the right to cancel the contract and obtain a full refund. However, no price increases are permitted after you have paid in full.
